

Hell Yeah

The Saturdays

Hey!
Let's go!
Uh huh!

Gonna pick my girls up about a quarter to ten
Tell your boyfriends they might never see you again
Put it up, tear it down, then we'll do it again
Keep it all in poppin' and there ain't no stoppin'

My ladies lookin' fly and we're good to go
Got my keys in my hand and we're out the door
I'm not playin', I'm saying we're out of control
No way, no how, they're gonna shut us down

Daddy ain't worried, 'cause he don't know
And Mama, she'll never tell
My brother got his own thing going on
And I pay my little sister well

Can we get the party started? Hell yeah!
Everybody scream and shout it! Hell yeah!
Turn it up a little louder! Hell yeah
We're getting down, down, yeah we're rocking out

Is everybody feeling alright? Hell yeah!
Are we gonna do it all night? Hell yeah!
'Til the moon turns into sunlight! Hell yeah!
We're getting down, down, yeah we're rocking out

Oh snap! There's my ex and he's staring at me
He's lookin' good, but there's so many fish in the sea
Lookin' for a hot boy most definately
We just pick and choose them or we lose them

There's what's her name and she's tryna be cute
And she says to me, I might act a fool
'Cause my girls got my back and they know what to do
Got no time for haters so we'll see you later

Daddy ain't worried, 'cause he don't know
And Mama, she'll never tell
My brother got his own thing going on
And I pay my little sister well

Can we get the party started? Hell yeah!
Everybody scream and shout it! Hell yeah!
Turn it up a little louder! Hell yeah
We're getting down, down, yeah we're rocking out

Is everybody feeling alright? Hell yeah!
Are we gonna do it all night? Hell yeah!
'Til the moon turns into sunlight! Hell yeah!
We're getting down, down, yeah we're rocking out

Uh huh!

Got my lip gloss poppin'? Check!

Got my toe-chi and I'm costin'? Check!
And the Gucci that I'm rockin'? Check!
Got my daddy's car, you know that we ain't walkin'

Daddy ain't worried, 'cause he don't know
And Mama, she'll never tell
My brother got his own thing going on
And I pay my little sister well

Can we get the party started? Hell yeah!
Everybody scream and shout it! Hell yeah!
Turn it up a little louder! Hell yeah
We're getting down, down, yeah we're rocking out

Is everybody feeling alright? Hell yeah!
Are we gonna do it all night? Hell yeah!
'Til the moon turns into sunlight! Hell yeah!
We're getting down, down, yeah we're rocking out
