

Love Through Postcards

The Scene Aesthetic

You send me love through post cards and it gets to me
I tape everyone inside this little book
That I sleep with every night, it never leaves my sight
Cause it inspires me to do the things I do

You told me once you want to run away with me
See the world for once through your perfect brown eyes
And I'd leave with you tonight if you would ask me to
There wouldn't be a doubt or question in my mind

I love your smile and your laugh and that grin you sometimes do
You amaze me every day with something new
If I made a list of things I love about you, girl
It would spread from Madagascar to Peru

I know you're tired and you're broken and that every day's the same
You say the whole worlds full of liars and your lack of trust's to blame
But if you ask me this one time
I swear I wouldn't let you down
I swear I'll do my best to keep you around

We keep adding to this list of things we'll someday do
Have a home, a dog, maybe have a kid or two
There's no one else that I can dream of having that life with
I've waited my whole life
I'm glad that I found you

Some people just won't understand how much you truly mean to me
I don't mind, that quite irrelevant, you see
What matters most is that we're here against all of the odds
It's living proof that all these things were meant to be

I know you're tired and you're broken and that every day's the same
You say the whole worlds full of liars and your lack of trust's to blame
But if you ask me this one time
I swear I wouldn't let you down
I swear I'll do my best to keep you around

If you're looking for the truth then I'm right here
I can be there for you right now and through every coming year
If you're looking for the truth then I'm right here
I can be there for you right now and through every coming year

There no distance I won't drive
No force strong enough to push my love aside

I know you're tired and you're broken and that every day's the same
You say the whole worlds full of liars and your lack of trust's to blame
But if you ask me this one time
I swear I wouldn't let you down
I swear I'll do my best to keep you around
