I can be a liar, I can be a cheat
I can be neurotic, I can be a freak
I can be everything in between
But you always find the best part
The best part of me

I just wanna say I'm sorry
Some days I know get out of hand
I wish that I was anybody else
I'm a wreck but you understand

I can't take myself
I'm just not well
My own worst enemy
I can't help myself
Think I'm going to hell
I'll probably never leave

I can be a liar, I can be a cheat
I can be neurotic, I can be a freak
I can be colder than a rolling stone

I can be everything in between
But you always find the best part

You said there's more to me than I can see
