

Skeletons

The Score

It all starts today
I'm letting go of all my mistakes

Tell me it's a simulation
I'll go wherever you go
Tryna find stimulation
Be the light in the dark that grows

And it comes without warning
A rush of blood that you can't control
Tryna find vindication
Be the light in the dark that grows

It all starts today
I'm letting go of all my mistakes
I'm cleaning out my skeletons in the closet
I was scared now I'm honest
It all starts today (Today, to-)

No more living life in cages
From my past it's time to let go
Every line on these pages
Reminds me these thoughts my own

And it comes without warning
A rush of blood that you can't control
The futures tired of waiting
Done hesitating
Time to let it go

It all starts today
I'm letting go of all my mistakes
I'm cleaning out my skeletons in the closet
I was scared now I'm honest
It all starts today (Today, today)

Breaking free from who I was
Clean the slate I've had enough
Remind myself that I'm the one
Yeah whose got to learn to let it go, go, go
Breaking free from who I was
Clean the slate I've had enough
Remind myself that I'm the one
Yeah whose got to learn to let it go

It all starts today
I'm letting go of all my mistakes
I'm cleaning out my skeletons in the closet
