

Something New

The Score

Save my soul, lost in a shadow
Need a miracle, locked in a battle
I was on my own living in yesterday

Yeah

Save my soul, I found another
Who can make me hold on for each other
We can lose control
Say what we need to say

Yeah, or we'll never know

Don't wait another day
We got a move to make

Lets take it all the way

So don't fight, if you really feel it
It's alright this could be the start of something new

Yeah we're so high
Count me on the ceiling
So hold tight this could be the start of something new

Now I see all I was missing
Was the best of me
Life that we're living
This is all I need
We could put the past away

Yeah, or we'll never know

Don't wait another day
We got a move to make

Lets take it all the way

So don't fight if you really feel it
Its alright, this could be the start of something new

Yeah we're so high
Count me on the ceiling
So hold tight this could be the start of something new

Now I see...
Now I see...

Don't wait another day
We got a move to make

Lets take it all the way

So don't fight
Yeah!

So don't fight if you really feel it

This could be the start of something new

(This is the start of something new)

Yeah we're so high

Count me on the ceiling
