

Visions

The Score

Tired of losing sleep to all my problems
It's 3 AM and I can't think straight
You never know until you hit the bottom
These nights are never easy to escape

And I've been through the motions like tidal waves in the ocean
Crashing over me
And I go through the motions, I'm craving love and devotion
It's like they want me to stay down, down, down

Oh, I see visions, I see visions in my dreams
Oh, I feel rhythm, I feel something truly me
It's harder and harder to breathe
When I say you're all that I, all that I need
Oh, I see visions, all my visions set me free

Counting seconds til it hits tomorrow
Racing the clock until it cleans the slate
Yeah, dying to carve a different path to follow
I'm never going back to yesterday

Oh, I see visions, I see visions in my dreams
Oh, I feel rhythm, I feel something truly me
It's harder and harder to breathe
When I say you're all that I, all that I need
Oh, I see visions, all my visions set me free

(All my visions set me free)
(All my visions set me free)
It's harder and harder to breathe
You're all that I, all that I need

Oh, I see visions, I see visions in my dreams
Oh, I feel rhythm, I feel something truly me
It's harder and harder to breathe
When I say you're all that I, all that I need
Oh, I see visions, all my visions set me free
All my visions set me free
