

Where Do You Run

The Score

Don't know how I was getting by without you here
You rescued me and opened up my eyes
Now I just want to make your demons disappear
To be the one who keeps you safe at night, yeah

Where do you run
When you're breaking down
Where do you run
When you're screaming now
Where do you run
When there's no one to hear
Where do you run
When you need to breathe
Where do you run
When you don't believe
Where do you run
When you can't face your fears
'Cause every time I run, I run to you

The bridges I have crossed since you've been next to me
You showed me there's a life worth fighting for, yeah
Now the tables turned and you're the one in need
Just let me in I'll help you in this world
