Drowning

The Screaming Jets

I've been straight up with you to try and make it easier, try to make things easier between you and me. Stand up and look at me get off your hallowed ground try to see the boundary between me and you.

It's obvious to me this ain't working,
It's just not gonna work out between you and me. I've been stra ight up with you,

Your still avoiding me.
I guess your too blind to see the difference in me.
Your apprehension's grounding me and everything I know.
Your good intension's are drowning me and
I can't breathe below the surface when you're hold me down.
So why the hell should I have to repeat my self, you know this doesn't have to be a pain in my soul.

Why should I have to be everybodys great redeemer,
it isn't wrong to be just what I am.
Your apprehension's grounding me and everything I know.
Your good intension's are drowning me and
I can't breathe below the surface when you're hold me down.
Deep water rushing over my head deep water holding me down.
Deep blood is washing my hands I'm drowning,
I'm drowning lost in lies,
they don't satisfy me anymore.
Your apprehension's drowning me and
I can't breathe below the surface when you're hold me down.
Water holding me down.
