

Pablo

The Screaming Jets

Introducing Pablo Escobar, trained at the School of the Americas

Another day making hay up in Hollywood

Execution of a main informant, been fighting FBI and law enforcement

Another day in the Colombian export trade

It's not the way you say it's all right, it's the reason why you keep it so tight

Fairweather friends in a fairytale by the moon

Get to know what and there he was, just like the tail trying to wag the dog

Another secret to a magic mountain rendezvous

Certain instance to how it's startin', just an easy way to be a part of Something lame, an anti-dose with a silverspoon

It's not the way you say it's all right, it's the reason why you keep it so quiet

By the way you're always uptight, why do you have to stay up all night

It's not the way you say "It's all right, it's all right"

Why do you have to stay up all night, you seem so uptight

With your fairweather friends in a fairytale, fairweather friends in a fairytale
