

Running Blind

The Screaming Jets

(Oh yeah, I don't say it all this time)

Doctor Phil sent off a doctor's bill to the president of the nation

The president said "The insurgence is dead, now it's time to raise inflation"

The people array to the god they had made, it was the god of an nihilation

Keep your mouth shut, just the same as your eyes, never rise above your station

I'm only runnin' on it, only runnin' blind, I'm only runnin' on it, runnin' out of time

I'm only runnin' on it, runnin' out of time

Never run out of time!

The newsflash said "The president's dead: political assassination!"

So hail to the new chief, same as the old chief, but nod off the expectations

The people all pray to the new god they made, they made it out of righteous indignation

I'm only runnin' on it, only runnin' blind, I'm only runnin' on it, runnin' out of time

I'm only runnin' on it, only runnin' blind, I'm only runnin' on it, runnin' out of time

Same old shit

Different day

Same old shit on a different day

Gonna get in the same old, same old, same old, same old...

I'm only runnin' on it, only runnin' blind, I'm only runnin' on it, runnin' out of time

I'm only runnin' on it, only runnin' blind, I'm only runnin' on it, runnin' out of time

Never run out of time!

I'm only running blind
