

Both Ways

The Script

I said that I was high
To hide my red eyes
Said I was glad to see you gone
But underneath I'm dyin'
I saw you in the street
You said that you were fine
But, baby, just below the surface
I could see you're lyin'

Was it stubbornness or was it just pride
That had you stepping off the ledge, love suicide?
I gotta let you know before we call time
When I'm somewhere off my face and you're on my mind

If you miss it, miss the magic
Miss the feeling
Then the feeling goes both ways
Like the river, like the traffic
Like the flow of the words we say
It's electric like a current
And it's running through my veins
If you miss me like I miss you
Then the feeling goes both ways
Then the feeling goes both ways

See, I'm a big boy, no, we don't cry
We just down a couple doubles, have a fist fight
I told your daddy once, I told your mama twice
That if they let me in your life then I'm gon' treat you right

Eh, you are the thing that I can't replace
You are a star, yeah, and stars need space
We're worlds apart, but, baby, that's okay
'Cause gravity will bring you back to me

If you miss it, miss the magic
Miss the feeling
Then the feeling goes both ways
Like the river, like the traffic
Like the flow of the words we say
It's electric like a current
And it's running through my veins
If you miss me like I miss you
Then the feeling goes both ways
Then the feeling goes both ways
Yeah
Oh, yeah
Yeah, the feeling goes both ways

It goes, it goes, goes a-both ways (Yeah)
It goes, it goes, goes a-both ways (Yeah)
It goes, it goes, goes a-both ways (Yeah)
It goes, it goes, goes a-both ways (Yeah)

It's electric like a current
And it's running through my veins
If you miss me like I miss you

Then the feeling goes both ways, yeah
Yeah
Hey
Yeah, the feeling goes both ways, yeah
Come on
Then the feeling goes both ways, yeah
Then the feeling goes both ways
Goes a-both ways, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, it goes both
