

Something Unreal

The Script

I been flicking over stations
I been clicking through the sites
Read every newspaper
But I'm still not right in the head
No, not right in the head

I been drinking till I'm sober
I been getting real high
Been cutting old wounds
And staying up all night again
Oh, all night again

'Cause I wanna feel something unreal
I wanna feel something unreal, yeah
Yeah, ooh
Yeah, ooh

Every bone I break
If it's love or hate
I wanna feel
Every time I bruise
If it's win or lose
I wanna feel (Something unreal)

I been digging up skeletons
I've been turning over rocks
But a million more problems
Is all that I got in the end
All I got in the end

My heart has been rewired
I been living online
These ideas I believe in Lord
But this ain't mine, it's pretend
Lord, oh, it's pretend, yeah

'Cause I wanna feel something unreal
I wanna feel something unreal, yeah
Yeah, ooh
Yeah, ooh

Every bone I break
If it's love or hate
I wanna feel
Every time I bruise
If it's win or lose
I wanna feel (Something unreal)

I wanna feel
I wanna feel

I feel it in my fingertips
I feel it in my bones
The hair is standing on my skin
I know that I am home
Throwing back the curtains
And the truth shall be revealed

I'm praying for, I'm waiting for Something unreal (Yeah)
Yeah, ooh
Yeah, ooh

Every bone I break
If it's love or hate
I wanna feel (Something unreal)
Every time I bruise
If it's win or lose
