

Can't Help Forgiving You

The Searchers

You torture me when you don't ever call me on the phone
You know damn well you got me upset here at home

You know it ain't right that you're always fooling around
You know damn well it hurts me so and really gets me down

Yet when you look at me
As only you can do
Baby' baby' I just give in
I can't help forgiving you

Yet when you look at me
As only you can do
Baby, baby, I just give in
I can't help forgiving you
