No Simple Reason

The September When

There is no simple reason
No simple answer to your question
The dawn breaks into day
We experience Love – Fades away

There is no simple truth
And it is no simple choice to choose
The color of this season is reflected in your eyes – Eternal youth

I`m gonna cry aloud and act like a fool
For your attention I will stick to no rule
I`m no longer gonna hide out scared in the dark
You make a flame out of this flickering spark

I`ve acted like a mad man
I walked right in – Should have walked around `Cos there are no simple ways
And you had no simple days with me – and I`m sorry

I`m gonna cry aloud and act like a fool
For your attention I will stick to no rule
I`m no longer gonna hide out scared in the dark
You make a flame out of this flickering spark

A week, a month, a million years
Time isn`t one of my million fears
If I loose a day
That`s what days are for
If I loose a battle
What`s a battle when we`re talking `bout a war

A week, a month, a million years
Time isn`t one of my million fears
If I loose a day
That`s what days are for
If I loose a battle
What`s a battle when we`re talking `bout a war

For your attention I will stick to no rule
I`m no longer gonna hide out scared in the dark
You make a flame out of this flickering spark
