

Girlfriend

The Servant

She says
"You're so mean to me
I'm in misery
All the things you say
Kick into my brain"
These soap opera lines
And I must've heard them fifty times
England gleefully
Goes bleeding into me
Weird philosophy
And ridiculous beliefs
Yes! You can win your dreams!
In bold on a magazine
She says "I should be your girlfriend
You should be my boyfriend

She says
"You're always telling me
'Oh there's greatness in me'.
But what've you actually
Ever really achieved!?"
And a nerve in me is hit
And I hate her more for it
She says "I should be your girlfriend
You should be my boyfriend
We should be together
You and me forever"
But I just look away
Cause I don't know what to say

We make promises that we will never keep There's so much stuff to say but we
We never speak
You should be my girlfriend
I should be your boyfriend
We should be together
You and me forever"
But you just look away
Cause you don't know what to say.....
