

Sleep Deprivation

The Servant

I must go now
Nice and slow
In mid conversation
I've lost the flow
I ricochet round my room
I can see spiders
Like holograms
I'd turn on the TV but the buttons are jammed
I ricochet round my room

And I can't wake up in the morning
I can't even open my eyes
And when I curl up in the evening sleep never arrives

Horrible moments
Waves of fear
What's that endless buzzing in my ear?
I ricochet round my room

And I can't wake up in the morning
I can't even open my eyes
And when I curl up in the evening sleep never arrives
Coz I just can't stop that thinking that's running around my mind
Whatever I try whatever I try whatever I try whatever I try whatever I try whatever I try
And I can't wake up in the morning
I can't even open my eyes
And when I curl up in the evening sleep never arrives
You got give me some rest
Give me some sleep
Give me some rest
Give me some sleep tonight
Tonight
Coz I just can't stop that thinking that's running
around my mind
I just can't stop that thinking that's running around my mind
Uh huh
