

Jesse, Please

The Sheepdogs

"Well, it's alright", I keep saying
But you don't have to take it
The grass is green and the war machine
Is used to trying to fake it
"Well, it's alright", I keep saying
'Bout the way things might have been
It keeps raining when I'm explaining
'Bout the trouble I've been in
What might have been

Oh, Jesse please, won't you be with me?
Oh, Jesse please, I love you, can't you see?
Oh, Jesse please, I'm begging on my knees
Oh, Jesse please, won't you be with me?

I know that you don't care
A man that can travel, travels everywhere
And I know, yeah yeah yeah
How late can it all wait?
There won't be another at the pearly gates
And I know, yeah yeah yeah

Oh, Jesse please, won't you be with me?
Oh, Jesse please, I love you, can't you see?
Oh, Jesse please, I'm begging on my knees
Oh, Jesse please, won't you be with me?