

Pacemaker

The Sheila Divine

only if you live there
i wish there were more i swear living alone in there until you match their bet

things are changing
my patience
i still love you
theres no relenting
things are changing
my patience

so don't forget it

after the laughter ends we'll remain as friends
its not the common trend guess it all depends

things are changing
my patience
i still love you
theres no relenting
things are changing
my patience
i still love you
so don't forget it
