

Home is where the heart is
But lately I feel so lost and afraid
It's so strange
Like a stone across the water
The ripples just keep on drifting away
Away

I can feel a hole
Burning in the sky
Watch it as it comes
The look in your eye
I don't ever want
You to be ashamed
So maybe that's why
I get carried away

Tell me when you're leaving
Cos I'm coming with you
Yeah, tell me when you're leaving
Cos I'm coming with you

Home is where we started
But lately I'm not quite sure where it ends
It all depends
Cos you change just like the weather
Whatever mood just seems to fit the day, it's okay

Till all the leaves have gone
Fallen to the ground
All I ever want to do is make you proud
I don't ever want you to be ashamed
So maybe that's why
I get carried away

Tell me when you're leaving
Cos I'm coming with you
So tell me when you're leaving
Cos I'm coming with you
Tell me when you're leaving

I can feel a hole
Burning in the sky
Watch it as it comes
The look in your eye
I can feel a hole
Burning in the sky
Watch it as it comes
The look in your eye

Home is where the heart is
But lately I feel so lost and afraid
