

The Dance Is Over

The Shirelles

You left me standing, at the dance alone
You said that you'd would walk me home

The dance is over
The dance is over
And you are gone

Oh my darling, I said I'll be faithful
As the morning sun
I killed someone, it's my darling pride
The dance is over
The dance is over
And you are gone

I guess somehow it's not my fault
Because my heart was never told
Flirting is losing game

Now I know I'm not to blame
And we may never meet again
And I feel so ashamed, oh darling

Please, can we still be friends?
I know I'll love you
Until the end

The dance is over
The dance is over
And you are gone
