

Desperate

The Shires

My heart still skips a beat when you look at me
You don't even know the things you do, do you?
You can still take me by surprise and keep me up all night
Is it crazy I'm still crazy after all this time?

I'm desperate for your love
It's lit up inside me now
There's a fire that never burns out
I'm desperate to tell you that
After all of the years we've been through
I'm still desperate for you

They said we'd have our day but sunset never came
And I want you more than ever, yes I do
And I still shiver when you touch me, I never get enough
Is it crazy I'm still crazy after all this time?

Oh, I'm desperate for your love
Lit up inside me now
There's a fire that never burns out
I'm desperate to tell you that
After all of these years we've been through
I'm still desperate for you
I'm still desperate for you

Ooh woah woah
Ooh woah woah
Ooh woah woah

I'm desperate for your love
Lit up inside me now
There's a fire that never burns out

I'm desperate for your love
It's lit up inside me now
There's a fire that never burns out
I'm desperate to tell you that
After all of the years we've been through
I'm still desperate for you
Desperate for you
