

Echo

The Shires

Woah, woah

There's a buzz in the air, it's c-c-c-contagious
If these four walls, can't c-c-c-contain it
We don't need a reason
Just a day that ends with a 'y'
So feel it if you feel it
Don't apologise

Tonight we're gonna shake this town
Nobody's gonna turn us down
We're living with our heart's up loud
They're gonna hear the echo, echo, echo
Tomorrow, when the sun comes up
There'll be ripples in their coffee cups
Tonight we're gonna make so much noise
They're gonna hear the echo, echo, echo, echo

Woah, woah

Gonna turn on all the lights like it's La-La-Las Vegas
So let the lovers love us and the haters hate us
We don't need a reason
Just a day that ends with a night
We're dancing on the ceiling
And we're born to run tonight

Tonight we're gonna shake this town
Nobody's gonna turn us down
We're living with our heart's up loud
They're gonna hear the echo, echo, echo
Tomorrow, when the sun comes up
There'll be ripples in their coffee cups
Tonight we're gonna make so much noise
They're gonna hear the echo, echo, echo, echo

Woah, woah, woah

Woah, we don't need a reason
Woah, to feel it if you feel it
Woah, we don't need a reason
Woah

Tonight we're gonna shake this town
Nobody's gonna turn us down (us down)
We're living with our heart's up loud
They're gonna hear the echo, echo, echo
Tomorrow, when the sun comes up (sun comes up)
There'll be ripples in their coffee cups (ooh yeah)
Tonight we're gonna make so much noise
They're gonna hear the echo, echo, echo, echo

Woah
Echo, echo, echo
Woah
Woah
Echo, echo, echo

Woah
