

Save Me

The Shires

Here he goes again
Keeping me up all night
He knows every weakness
Just where to stick the knife
I'm fighting, I'm bleeding but yeah I'm still breathing
Oh it hurts like hell
Oh God I need somebody please
To save me from myself

The girl in the mirror
Looking right back at me, yeah
She knows every fear, every flaw
That I don't want anyone else to see
Oh it's harder and harder, for me to ignore her
The more of the lies that she tells
Oh God I need somebody please
To save me from myself

Woah, but you
You love me for who I am
All the darkness, the doubt and the fear disappears
When you take my hand
You know my heart like nobody else
You save me from myself

You're the reason I'm singing
You're the beat of my soul
The sunshine and blue skies
You light up my life
I wonder if you even know
You pulled me out of hell
Ooh, you saved me from myself

Woah, yeah you
Love me for who I am
All the darkness, the doubt and the fear disappears
When you take my hand
You know my heart like nobody else
You save me from myself

Woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah
You know my heart like nobody else, you save me from myself
You know my heart like nobody else, you save me from myself
