

Changes

The Silent Comedy

Gather up the pieces of the day
Pushed into the dark and locked away
I fear I'm repeating my mistakes
But I can't stay
Can't stay the same

Might take days
Might take ages
You need patience
To make peace with change

Might take days
Might take ages
You need patience
To make peace with change

No, can't stay the same
No, can't stay the same

Gathered myself up to meet the day
Pulled out from the dark what I put away
I think I'm getting free of my mistakes
If I don't break
I'll break away

Might take days
Might take ages
You need patience
To make peace with change

Might take days
Might take ages
You need patience
To make peace with change

No, can't stay the same
No, can't stay the same

No, can't stay the same
No, can't stay the same

No, can't stay the same
No, can't stay the same
