Hear the funeral bell ring
Murder victim
Run and hide, run and hide, just be wise
She ah come for your blood, bring the fire
She's a murderer, to murder is her desire
She come for your blood, bring the fire

"What's your name, I've seen you about, I think you're choong, boomting!
I really hope you're not a grim, I really hope you're not a... Murderer"
Can't be from round here I never heard ah ya, or seen your face appear but...

She goes out to the clubs to pick up a man
Has her way then she's on to the best friends
Dashin' them and she's on to the next men
Same again and she's on to the next ends

She's a murderer, she's a murderer
She's a murderer, murder she play, murder she game
She's a murderer, she's a murderer
She's a murderer, murder she play, murder she game
