

Out My Mind

The Skints

I'm bummed out alone at my yard and a half of a bottle of rum down Frustrated to face that the case of which that it goes up it is only to come down

The suns out, well it might be I don't know
Been waitin' for 3 days same again tomorrow
Cos I let my girl go and that's all very boring
And I call up my friends they got work in the morning Cos it ain't gonna work, unless you put your all in It ain't gonna work unless you quit your fooling around
But I'm married to the music not fooling around Grab a couple of drinks get the tube into town
I'm texting my friends just to see who's about
But it's 4am and it seems that I am

Out my mind, but you're not out of mine
I better go out tonight
I call up my friends and see what they're suggestin' just what you're
suggestin'
I'm out my mind, but you're not out of mine
I better go out tonight
I call up my friends and see what they're suggestin' just what you're
suggestin'

See now these songs aren't written sober, that ain't' cos I'm getting older
See we broke up in September and it's starting to get colder
And I'm struggling to remember 'bout the times I used to hold her
When the things got rough I told myself that I'd be better off alone
It'd be better if the weather didn't chill me to the bone
Together forever's the words she used to tell me on the phone Whatever! For better or worse I would take as a blessing it isn't my curse
When it comes to her my interns hurts and Oh My Good Lord!

I'm out my mind, but you're not out of mine
I better go out tonight
I call up my friends and see what they're suggestin' just what you're
suggestin'
I'm out my mind, but you're not out of mine
I better go out tonight
I call up my friends and see what they're suggestin' just what you're
suggestin'

And I'm sooooo gone, man. And it's soooo long
And I'm sooooo gone, man. And it's soooo long
And I'm sooooo gone, man. And it's soooo long
And I'm sooooo gone, man. And it's soooo long

I'm out my mind, but you're not out of mine
I better go out tonight
I call up my friends and see what they're suggestin' just what you're
suggestin'

I'm out my mind, but you're not out of mine
I better go out tonight
I call up my friends and see what they're suggestin' just what you're
suggestin
