

Sociopath

The Skints

All my friends are sociopaths
It's alright it's alright
I won't rest tonight
Cos all the foundations were built on spite
It's alright

All my friends are sociopaths
It's alright it's alright
I won't rest tonight
Cos all the foundations were built on spite
It's alright

Some people struggle through the oppression, there is a lesson there:
Just hold your head high, right up to the sky, you'll be skankin' without a care
Ya roll the dice, ya pay the price, it isn't very fair
You find yourself in a place that you might never have been before
Look at the time and see no crime and a baby wanting more
But every time you look in her eyes you see she's just a whore

All my friends are sociopaths
It's alright it's alright
I won't rest tonight
Cos all the foundations were built on spite
It's alright

All my friends are sociopaths
It's alright it's alright
I won't rest tonight
Cos all the foundations were built on spite
It's alright

Sitting alone in my living room, sipping on a cup of echinacea tea
Just reading the headlines, look at the state of our society:
The criminal gang lords threatening kids to take them guns for free
'Cause the younger they getting the worser they getting, ya better listen de ar
They coming, knocking right on your door, better get the hell out of here
They gonna blow your god damn brains all over the chandelier!

All my friends are sociopaths
It's alright it's alright
I won't rest tonight
Cos all the foundations were built on spite
It's alright

All my friends are sociopaths
It's alright it's alright
I won't rest tonight
Cos all the foundations were built on spite
It's alright

She's got a swastika tattooed to the torso
You look in her eyes and see in her face, she not remorseful
She's got a swastika tattooed to the torso
Oh lord

She's got a swastika tattooed to the torso
You look in her eyes and see in her face, she not remorseful
She's got a swastika tattooed to the torso
Oh lord

Swastika, ain't no ordinary sticker it's a swastika!
Ain't just the kind of sticker ya peel off, it's a swastika!
I tell you exactly where to stick ya swastika!
