

Tomorrow

The Skints

Don't you worry about tomorrow because tomorrow won't be worryi
ng about you

These days I seem to think a lot about the way I'm living Not trying as hard as I should and being less forgiving
I know I shouldn't hurt myself for the errors that I make
But when you're alone self-destruction seems the only way
So then I got to thinking about my mortality About how fragile and fleeting this life I have ahead of me Regret is not a friend I wish to keep, I know my enemies They're working from the inside trying to take the best of me

We've got to keep our heads screwed on for hope of getting thro ugh another day
As time goes on it won't be long until we've found the way and carried on, so

Don't you worry about tomorrow because tomorrow won't be worryi
ng about you

I know that nothing is guaranteed and that life won't wait and that time won't cease
So I try get by with a vibrant mindset, finding the time with m y inner peace
And the fact that I'm trapped in a land, unmapped, on the track s of a train and I just can't see How preparing the brain's gonna tame the future
"Que sera, what will be, will be"
But I felt that pain in my heart when Ken died Know that I carry it with me daily We've all lost loved ones, I gues that's life right?
Seems like my life might try and break me Tomorrow's a heartless guy and I highlight A promise to no one, gets all crazy
Don't watch tomorrow cos he don't love you Just make sure you're cool today see Trust me

We've got to keep our heads screwed on for hope of getting thro
ugh another day
As time goes on it won't be long until we've found the way and
carried on, so

Don't you worry about tomorrow because tomorrow won't be worryi
ng about you
