

Knowing

The Slackers

Brand new
Good for you
ahhhh

Storm clouds they weep
Bring down the rains upon me
Light does we sleep

See if I was in the morning
Don't understand
Should you be doomed to speak it
Hold out your hand
To spot the rains upon them

Knowing is a two edged sword
Of what you know and what's ignored
Wisdom is a liquor store
Tastes so sweet
Just wait till you wake up in the morning

Secrets we keep
Never to tell your lover
Talk in your sleep
To the ear of another
Don't think too much
When you look into her eyes
Give her your touch
It's only then and realize

Knowing is a two edged sword
Of what you know and what's ignored
Wisdom is a liquor store
Tastes so sweet
Just wait till you wake up in the morning

Knowing is a two edged sword
Of what you know and what's ignored
Wisdom is a liquor store
Tastes so sweet
Just wait till you wake up in the morning
Tastes so sweet
Just wait till you wake up in the morning
Tastes so sweet
