The Slits

Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure

Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure

I don't like what I got to do
Just to have a bunch of friends at school
Don't want to be hip, wear cloth and hair
Just cause is what everyone that wears

Got to face another
Morning feeling stupid
If it means to be it
I don't want to do it

All my life I'm outcast
Always coming last

Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure

Gotta go to school, it's up again
Early morning meeting friends
Doing everything I'm not Always because be caught on the spot
Smoke to be in company
Sell my personal integrity
Things I don't do it on my own
Only soon [?] at home

Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure

Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, I don't want no peer pressure
Peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure, peer pressure

Today I don't want to go, so what?
What's to beat me up and, know what?
It's bound to stop it today
I'm not going, no way
Got to pass all these tests
Too much stress, I'm too depressed
Facing teachers, cards [?]
I don't wanna follow their laws

My friend got a boyfriend at seven
So should I, but I'm only eleven
Worse, I don't feel at home
At home, even more alone
So my small world not understood
By family and neighbourhood

Just a lonely world I find
No one know what's on my mind
Only I know what goes on
Don't know if right or wrong
At school, no one really cares
No one ever even shares

Not even a peace of mind
Can't expect anyone be kind
Well I won't more out of life
Than just survive
