The Slow Show

It's been a long time since you were here
But it's getting better every year
I miss you every day in my own peculiar way it's sincere
Nothing stays the same
Things are bound to change
But I was hoping you would stick around here
I was hoping you would stick around here
I was hoping you would stick around

It's been a long time since you were here
But it's getting better every year
I miss you every day in my own peculiar way it's sincere
Nothing stays the same
Things are bound to change
But I was hoping you would stick around here
I was hoping you would stick around here
I was hoping you would stick around
