

Testing

The Slow Show

Testing, testing, testing one!
'Cause he's sick of hearing that he's the lucky one
If it's not one thing, it's another one
And he's testing, testing, testing one!

Bath blues in a row
Like buses on a road
Slowly as they go

Testing people
Broken men
Testing over
And over again
It's the same old story, just a different end
Testing, testing, testing them!

Can you hear me?
'Cause I'm calling you!
Can you hear me?
Is this getting through?
Can you hear me?
'Cause I'm calling you!
Can you hear me?
Is this getting through?

Bath blues in a row
Like buses in the road
Slowly as they go

Testing, testing, testing one!
'Cause he's sick of hearing that he's a lucky one
If it's not one thing, it's another one
And he's testing, testing, testing one!
