The S.L.P.

Brake lights
They blind like the sun
Here goes
Driving to meet you
Into the night

Feels right
You wait as you run
Don't wait
Only get one life
Open your arms

To hold me
Tell me I don't need hate
Tell me I'll be right as rain
In the end
And I won't
Fall down into pieces
Take my chance, I'll see this through
'Til the end

Fast cars
They rush past my head
I am the passenger
The dark days are over
It fell through my hands

I share a smoke, don't doubt it
Now the streets come alive
With the crowd spilling out
That's when tomorrow
Becomes today

Hold me
Tell me I don't need hate
Tell me I'll be right as rain
In the end
And I won't
Fall down into pieces
Take my chance, I'll see this through
'Til the end

Got me in a trance
Got the whole world looking at you
What a place to be
Oh, what a place to be

Got me in a trance
Got the whole world looking at you
What a place to be
Oh, what a place to be

Got me in a trance
Got the whole world looking at you
What a place to be
Oh, what a place to be

Got me in a trance
Got the whole world looking at you
What a place to be
Oh, what a place to be

Got me in a trance
Got the whole world looking at you
(Tell me I don't need hate)
What a place to be
(Tell me I'll be right as rain)

Got me in a trance
Got the whole world looking at you
(In the end)
What a place to be
Oh, what a place to be

Got me in a trance
Got the whole world looking at you
(Tell me I don't need hate)
What a place to be
(Tell me I'll be right as rain)

Got me in a trance
Got the whole world looking at you
(In the end)
What a place to be
Oh, what a place to be

Brake lights
