The Smithereens

The way you better not know what it's all about
You drop it into gear but you better look out for yourself

Because they're all revved up and onto somebody new

There's a guy and a girl from another town
You turn around baby and they're putting you down, you should g o
'Cause times are hard for the two of us
Because they're all revved up and onto somebody new

Well they're all revved up and they're ready to go
They're a black ink spot on your rear window
They're the first in line and the last to go
Well they're all revved up and they're ready to go

Well the end is coming and it's coming fast
And we can't do nothing so you better relax
Here we go again, there's no time left for the two of us
Because they're all revved up and onto somebody new
