

Nobody Lives Forever

The Smithereens

It's raining here in Manhattan
It's coming down and as we're reborn
It's raining on my [?] parade
It's moving like a shot in the dark

There's nobody answering the prayer that I'd say
Guess I'll just live for today
One thing I know is I'm not coming back
Nobody lives forever

I'm looking for something to live for
I'm thinking 'bout it all of the time
I just want something I can believe in
I need something that I can call mine

There's nobody listening to words that I say
Tell them to live for today
One thing I know is I'm not coming back
Nobody lives forever, nobody lives forever

This I know
Life is stronger
No tomorrow

There's nobody answering the prayers that I say
Guess I'll just live for today
One thing I know is I'm not coming back
Nobody lives forever, nobody lives forever

Nobody lives forever
Nobody lives forever
Nobody lives forever
