

Deep Diving

The Snuts

I had a premonition
Sitting drinking in the kitchen
Singing away, away, away, away oh
Yeah I'm torn between decisions
And is anybody listening when I say

I'm smiling on the surface
'Cause I'm way too proud
Accidentally, on purpose
I'm throwing it down

I'm deep diving
Drowning in my feels tonight (tonight, tonight)
Tomorrow, I'll be fighting
Trouble in the back of my mind (my mind)
I paper over cracks all the time
It's not going to save me
I don't know why
I've got to feel like I'm deep diving
Drowning in my feels tonight (tonight, tonight)

Light up
Fighting fires
I'm a smoking barrel
In the little hours
Away, away, away, oh here we go again

I wanna shut the curtains
I'm feeling so uncertain now
Accidentally, on purpose
I throw in the towel

I'm deep diving
Drowning in my feels tonight (tonight, tonight)
Tomorrow, I'll be fighting
Trouble in the back of my mind (my mind)
I paper over cracks all the time
It's not going to save me
I don't know why
I've got to feel like I'm deep diving
Drowning in my feels tonight

Tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight
