People

'cause there's something that moves me on and it's there forever and there's one thing that we all know now matter how clever and if someone will take me on takes me moving right on and on and when someone will take me on takes me moving right on and on

people won't let go
and it takes my soul
people won't let go ohoh

when there's something that you lean on it don't last forever and there's nothing to do just hold on and you'll be the rebel but when someone will ask you on you get moving right on and on and when someone will take you on takes you moving right on and on
