

Tonight

The Soviettes

Too much
You'd go all night
And now I know I'm right
You said "I'm fine" and I believed, but now, my love-goodnight
You're gonna bring me down tonight
"So young and dumb" they said, and "that's just what you get"
Still in my heart you'll always be my love
My love-goodnight
You're gonna bring me down
You'll walk a line from here to there that's heel to toe and re cite whatever back to front
And then you're going?
You never listen to me anyway
But I'd do anything to make you stay just another hour, or for the night
Until "Sober's on" and you're feeling right! Ooh:
You're gonna bring me down tonight
