

Winning Is for Losers

The Soviettes

Did you know when you woke up today that you were gonna sign yo ur life away?

And you don't even believe in the NRA, now your body might just stay:

Now that he's in power its soon your finest hour

So put on those bars and be proud of your stars!

So march and watch them all bleed and make sure they believe we 're all that they need!

Do you believe in why you're there?

Do you think we're being fair?

They sold you on a thought

Believe you were bought

Now push those bullets

Push "our" thoughts
