

You Should Know

The Soviettes

She wears her Levi's one size small, then you should know
That she gets anything she wants, then you should know
She made a crazy first impression (you saw her)
Look at you now, you're just a mess and (you gotta know)
You should know, You should know (know)

She's got the '67 Lincoln you should know She'll flash a smile then get a drink that you should know
I know you think that she's the one (you saw her)
I think to her you're just another (you wanna know)
You should know, You should know (know)

She'll hope you're two packs width of thinkin' (you saw her)
They say she's another "never mean it" (that's right)
She doesn't wake up 'til the evening (no way)
And every night to her's the weekend (another)
She made a crazy first impression (you saw her)
Look at you now, you're just a mess and (you oughtta
know)
You should know, You should know (know)
