

Ain't No Price on Happiness

The Spinners

You're always playing tricks on my mind
You must think I'm a fool of some kind
How you think I feel, haven't got the will to go on
My mind is in a daze, games that we have played, love is gone

The price of love and game rises on
To think I had your love, now it's gone
I believed in you, broke heart in two, what is wrong
Always wondered why you had to say goodbye. I'm alone

And it ain't no price on happiness
You got it, baby, you drive me crazy
Ain't no price on happiness
You gotta live, gotta live
Ain't no price on happiness
To lose love is no game
Game

I always thought I meant more to you
Than just a couple of tickets for two
Wasn't much to ask, money couldn't last, but so long
What it meant to you, my love it wouldn't do, now you're gone

There was a time when money could buy
The truth was painted dark with a lie
Could you really say, love is gone away, and be sure
Take a look inside all the love you hide, and you'll find

That it ain't no price on happiness
You got to find a way to tell the world today
Ain't no price on happiness
Gotta be free
Ain't no price on happiness
To lose love is no game
Game

To lose love is no game
Game

Oh baby
Ain't no price on love
(Ain't no price on happiness)
It's a matter of principle that you apply to the situation
(Ain't no price on happiness)
Makes love a fad
Makes you want to hold on oh hold on to love
(Ain't no price on happiness)
You may get the cash, and it may not last
(Ain't no price on happiness)
It's what's wrong with the world today
(Ain't no price on happiness)
