

I Just Can't Help But Feel The Pain

The Spinners

Just can't help, but feel the...
Just can't help, but feel the...
Just can't help, but feel the...
Paaaain!

Everybody tells me that I'm just a plain old fool, yeah (plain old fool, yeah)
I can't help because I love you the way that I do (I do)
They never knew how hard I tried (I tried)
To keep you off my mind (my mind)
It's so hard (it's so hard)

Everytime I think I'm getting over you
Somebody mentions your name (your name)
And this old feeling comes over me
And I just can't help but feel the pain

Sometimes I think I'm slowly losing my mind, yeah (losing my mind, yeah)
My friends say forget her and leave those memories behind (behind)
I can't forget the thrill (the thrill)
I guess I never will (never will)
It's so hard (it's so hard)

And everytime I think I'm getting over you
Somebody mentions your name (your name)
And this old feeling comes over me
And I just can't help but feel the pain

It's so hard (it's so hard)
And everytime I think I'm getting over you
Somebody mentions your name (your name)
And this old feeling comes over me
And I just can't help but (no, no baby!)
I just can't help but (no, no baby!)
I just can't help but feel the pain
