

Long Walk To D.C.

The Staple Singers

It's a long walk to DC but I've got my walking shoes on I can't take a plane, passer train, because my money ain't that long

America we believe, oh that you love us still So people I'm gonna be under to wipe away my tears

I'll tell ya, it's a long walk to DC but I'm on, ooh, yes, I am
Ooh yeah, but I know I'll make it some day I know it's a whole lot of rocks and rifts before I make it the re
Should've been going on yesterday, but today I am a leaving her e

I've got a dime for some coffee, I got a dime to buy me a cake
I gotta see the president no matter what it takes I'll tell yah, It's a long walk to DC, yeah
But I'm lonely, oh yes I am ooh, yeah, but I know I'll make it some day

I know that its a whole lots of rocks and rifts before I make i t there
I should have been going on yesterday but today I am a leaving here
I've got a dime for some coffee, 'nother dime to buy me a cake
I gotta see the president, no matter what it takes

I'll tell ya, it's a long walk to DC but I'm on, ooh, yes, I am
Ooh yeah, but I know I'll make it some day
I'm gonna step out of Jackson, our Mississippi town Through Alabama, haw, you know I'm Memphis bound North Carolina, Virginia too

I gotta set my feet now on the national ground, yeah
