

Defeating The Purpose + Pivot

The Starting Line

All kidding aside
Life is good, no paranoia
Ringing through the head
Suddenly halts to an end

Fingers through the hair
Anything to ease the tension
Be that as it may
Tide is churning from within

Hard to imagine
What's deep beneath the surface
Sorry for yourself
Only defeating the purpose
Hard to imagine
What's deep beneath the surface
See for yourself
Without defeating the purpose
Defeating the purpose
Defeating the purpose

Oh, what a shame
Such a good waste of the dawn light
Bleeding into day
No time better to begin

Fingers through the hair
Anything to ease the tension
Be that as it may
Tide is churning from within

Hard to imagine
What's deep beneath the surface
Sorry for yourself
Only defeating the purpose
Hard to imagine
What's deep beneath the surface
See for yourself
No defeating the purpose

Hey, hey, hey
Time for us all to pivot
It will be worth it
Even when you're in the midst of it
Never be perfect
You've got to pivot
You know that now it's time, time
Now it's time, time

Now it's time for us all to pivot
You know it's worth it
Even when you're in the midst of it
Even when you think you're above the Creatures of habit
Caught up in traffic

Now that you're getting in front of it
Perfect
Pivot
Now it's time, time

Now it's time for us all to pivot
It will be worth it
You know that now it's time, time
Yeah
