

All I'll Need From You

The Statler Brothers

I know you're a woman a sensitive kind
A fairy-tale princess with hearts on your mind
Who needs to be showered with candy and flowers
And told that you're loved all the time
I know you need kisses and hugs every day
Phone calls and letters whenever I'm away
You need to believe in far away weekends Puppies and Valentine's day
I'll give everything I have to give until the day that I die
There will be days I won't understand but I'm telling you now I'll try
I know you're a woman a sensitive kind
A fairy-tale princess with hearts on your mind
And as long as you need me you'll always need me
That's all I'll need from you
I'll give everything I have to give...
And as long as you need me you'll always need me
That's all I'll need from you
