

Thank God I've Got You

The Statler Brothers

I've got union dues and taxes and a mortgage due this month
And Fred got that promotion 'stead of me
I've got more than I can handle, and twice what I can do
But through it all thank God I've got you

I've got rooms needin' paper, and my old car's still in the shop
And Billy broke his arm today at school
Momma called and said her stove went out, and Daddy's got the flu
But through it all thank God I've got you

When things start gettin' tough, it seems like you do too
When there just ain't enough you always make due
When it gets more than I can handle, and I don't know what to do
o
I just stop and thank God I've got you

I've got kids askin' questions I can't answer 'bout the Lord
Finally put up my old pick-up truck for sale
And that note I signed for uncle Ed is 3 weeks overdue
Honey, here's hopin' the same ain't true with you

When things start gettin' tough, it seems like you do too
When there just ain't enough you always make due
When it gets more than I can handle, and I don't know what to do
o
I just stop and thank God I've got you
I just stop and thank God I've got you
