The Statler Brothers

We walked the warm streets of Florida with sand in our pockets lots of times Worked the cold streets of New York with four guitars and a tin cup just for dimes We spent one night in Winnipeg a summer in Mississippi sun Had some trouble once in Fargo some bad times in Enceno but we had fun We made the papers once in Phoenix when we stopped and tried to break up a fight We hit keno in Reno and lost it all in Vegas the very next nigh t We hopped a train in Chicago and skinny dipped in San Francisco bav We checked it all in the big hotels then used the fire escape t o get away And we wouldn't trade it all for the world and all of its gold It's the past that makes the future worth livin' Mother Luck's been good to us and we will praise her in our son qs For the good times and the good things she has given We flew into Kansas City early April 24th without a plane We got stranded in a snow storm with some girls from Salt Lake City on a train We spent a week one night in LA looking for a doctor's daughter on the strip Then we wound up in Nashville pitchin' songs and waitin' tables for a tip

And we wouldn't trade it all...

We
