

Shallow Grave

The SteelDrivers

Hook:

I buried my love with the silver spade
Layed her down in the shallow grave,
Can't keep love in the cold cold ground
Nothing in the earth can keep her down.

She was mine since my youth
She taught me how to strain the truth
The love we shared
Was something strong
Made me forget about right and wrong.

Hook:

I buried my love with the silver spade
Layed her down in the shallow grave,
Can't keep love in the cold cold ground
Nothing in the earth can keep her down.

(Yeah!)

When darkness comes, she appears
Whispers words I should not hear.
Her voice is soft like a summer rain,
With a bain like candy tane.

Hook: x2

I buried my love with the silver spade
Layed her down in the shallow grave,
Can't keep love in the cold cold ground
Nothing in the earth can keep her down.

Uh, I buried my love
In the shallow grave...
