The Stills

The clouds are thunder and lightning
The ocean's level will rise
The earth will shake
Your windows will break
Tomorrow is all mine

The roads wash in the shadows
Of a thousand manta rays
Volcanic waves
Our hopes are in vain
Tomorrow is all mine

And I might be without you
Your hand is leaving mine
Your eyes I spare
This never-ending rain
Tomorrow is all mine
