Got a haircut, took a shower, shaved and sprayed macho deodorant Put on your brand-new jogging suit which cost a lot to your dad and you feel so fresh

Daddy promised to borrow his Mersedes Benz You're ready to show yourself to your friends Meet `em and say "Hello" Think "ain't I a jolly good fellow" Then you see ugly long haired dirt bags which are farting, screaming and smelling bad "Are they really that childish, they make me feel so sick"

Tell `em to leave this modern place "You're such a big disgrace"
"Don't you play your music here what's that noice?"
Now you'll

Get stoned
Get stoned
Get stoned, your ears are bleeding
and you have become stone deaf
Get stoned, and get again until the end
`till you're stone dead
So get stoned again

See your jogging suit ripping apart under it there is dirty black jeans Take another overdose of music Your hairs growing long and your bored mind is getting crazy

Get stoned
Get stoned
Get stoned, your ears are bleeding
and you have become stone deaf
Get stoned, and get again until the end
`till you're stone dead
So get stoned again
